11 to 18, boys and girls

Teacher of English

Teachers Main Pay Scale M1 - UPS 3

Full-time permanent required for September 2026 or as soon as possible thereafter

Bishop Vaughan Catholic School is a very successful, diverse and popular secondary school. Following a successful recent Estyn inspection, Governors are seeking applications from a well-qualified teacher of English to support our vibrant English department. Our high-performing 11-18 school is consistently ranked among the Top Ten highest-performing state schools in Wales in the Sunday Times Parent Power Guide. Our recent Estyn inspection noted:

‘Strong Catholic values underpin all aspects of the school’s work.’

‘Bishop Vaughan Catholic School strives for quality, excellence and achievements in all that it does.’

Leaders have high expectations, know the school well and build strong links with the wider community.’

The English department is well-led and high-achieving, with a strong focus on pedagogy and pupil progress. The successful applicant will be capable of teaching across the English curriculum. The post will commence on the 1st September 2026 or as soon as possible thereafter.

You must be a committed team player with a clear vision for high performance and raising outcomes. You must be capable of motivating and inspiring students of all abilities, and be ready to work collaboratively to enhance our culture of high expectations and attainment. There is a clear emphasis in our school on research-informed pedagogy and the highest standards of leadership. Bishop Vaughan Catholic School is committed to the training and professional development of middle leaders, and you will be well supported professionally in our cohesive and vibrant school community.

Bishop Vaughan is a very popular school with a thriving sixth form. It is an inspirational place for pupils and staff alike, having a distinctive Catholic ethos and clear school values where the quality of relationships is all-important.

The school is committed to the safeguarding and welfare of students and staff. As part of our commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, you will be required to
